ABOUT MAULANA EHTESHAM SAHAB

Maulana Ehteshamuddin Islahi Sahab, a revered figure in the realm of education and spiritual guidance, was born on February 4, 1942, in the quaint village of Sanjarpur, nestled in Azamgarh, Uttar Pradesh. He was the son of Hafiz Nizamuddin, who laid the foundation of his early education. Earning his Maulana degree from the esteemed Madarsatul Islah in Azamgarh, Maulana Ehteshamuddin's journey took a significant turn when he ventured to Dubai in search of better opportunities. There, he dedicated two decades to imparting the teachings of the Qur'an to young minds, fostering a generation rooted in Islamic values while adapting to modern educational needs.

Upon returning to his beloved Sanjarpur, Maulana Ehteshamuddin became a staunch advocate for both religious and contemporary education. His philosophy was deeply influenced by the ideals of Maulana Abulkalam Azad, India's first Minister of Education. He envisioned a future where children from his community would aspire to become doctors, engineers, and lawyers—professions that would not only elevate their status but also bring pride to their nation on an international scale.

OUR MISSION

For the disadvantaged and impoverished who want to prepare for and succeed in the numerous law entrance exams held throughout the nation, we aim to provide a platform that establishes a strong foundation. No matter their socioeconomic circumstances, we are committed to creating a community where everyone, regardless of background, has access to the light of education. We think that everyone has a fundamental right to an education, and that no one should be denied that right just due to a lack of resources. Education improves not only the lives of the current generation but also those of multiple succeeding generations. We aim to benefit thousands of others in the process by assisting just one person in gaining access to a top-notch education.

ABOUT INSTITUTION

The institution offers a comprehensive curriculum that includes daily classes, mock tests, sectional assessments, and current affairs updates—all designed to equip students with the necessary tools for success. The results have been remarkable; from its first two batches (1.0 & 2.0), over 60 students secured placements in prestigious universities. Notably, in 2024, the Ehtesham Law Batch 2.0 achieved exceptional results with 15 selections in Jamia Millia Islamia's B.A.LL.B program and 13 selections in Aligarh Muslim University's B.A.LL.B program—among them was an All India Rank (AIR) 1.

The institution's commitment goes beyond mere academic success; it aims to empower disadvantaged youth by providing them with opportunities that can transform their lives and those of future generations. Through education, they believe they can illuminate paths for countless individuals who may otherwise remain in the shadows of ignorance and poverty.
